

Streetcar Directions from Union Station to the Multi-Faith Centre

WORKSHOP LOCATION: Koffler House / Multi-Faith Centre,
University of Toronto
ADDRESS: 569 Spadina Avenue

Koffler House / Multi-Faith Centre at the University of Toronto is located on the north-east side of Spadina Crescent (along Spadina Avenue, north of College Street and south of Bloor Street).

By TTC Streetcar from Union Station (allow for at least 30 min. travelling time)

- Enter the TTC at Union Station and find the streetcars (not subway) Note that the TTC's Union Station has west and east entrances right across from each other. Use the east entrance to access the streetcars (look for "Harbourfront and Exhibition streetcar" signs).
- Take the "510 Spadina" streetcar; do NOT board the "509 Harbourfront" streetcar (both streetcars use the same track). Look for the route sign on the front of the streetcar or above the front door. If the 509 streetcar is boarding, stand back and wait for the 510.
- The streetcar will travel underground south to Queen's Quay, surface and travel west along Queen's Quay, and then turn north and follow Spadina

Ave. You will pass the major intersections: Front, King, Queen, Dundas, and College Streets. Exit at Willcocks Street (which is the first stop after College Street). Cross the street at the stoplight to the east side of the street, and walk south. The Multi-Faith Centre is at the north-east corner of Spadina Crescent, where the street begins to curve (the building is visible from the streetcar stop).
